

Collingwood Elvis Festival

An annual event since 1995, the Collingwood Elvis Festival is the largest of its kind, and sanctioned by Elvis Presley Enterprises. It's a chance to learn more about the man, his music, his attitude and iconic image. Find out what made Elvis a pop culture giant, and how he continues to influence music and culture even today! We'll start off our enjoyable day with a Chicken Luncheon at Mylar and Loreta's in Singhampton (11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.) before we motor on to the Festival itself, where you have the afternoon (1:30 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.) to spend as you wish: enjoy performances by Elvis Tribute Artists, browse the many vendor booths, and perhaps purchase some unique gift items. Join us to 'let loose' and release your Inner Elvis!

MEAFORD HALL SUMMER THEATRE presents

'Midnight Hour'

From Memphis to Motown

Travel to the picturesque Blue Mountains area to visit the pretty lakeside town of Meaford, overlooking the waters of Nottawasaga Bay. At the beautifully restored Meaford Hall here, you'll enjoy a Buffet Luncheon followed by the live musical show 'Midnight Hour: From Memphis to Motown', a celebration of the greatest Rhythm and Blues music to hit the airwaves, including Aretha Franklin, Gladys Knight and the Pips, James Brown, Otis Redding, Smokey Robinson, The Temptations, Ray Charles and Marvin Gaye. You'll hear classic R&B songs like 'In the Midnight Hour', 'Georgia on My Mind', 'I Heard it Through the Grapevine', 'Dock of the Bay', 'Sugar Pie, Honey Bunch' and many more. Don't miss this great musical show that will have you singing and tapping your feet! Note: you may purchase wine or beer at Meaford Hall, which may be enjoyed both during lunch and the show.
